REMINDER: League Participation Agreements Due NOW!

If your club team is looking to secure a spot in the NCBA Division I, NCBA Division II, NCSA or NCBBA for the upcoming 2014-15 season and you have not submitted your League Participation Agreement yet, you must do so ASAP! These forms were due by June 1st and many teams that competed this past season have not yet submitted their renewal paperwork.

Don't miss out on an opportunity to continue playing the sport that you love. Be sure to get your LPA signed, completed and sent-in to your Regional Director or District Coordinator today!

Aggies Claim 2014 NCBA DI National Championship

Tampa, FL - Utah State defeated Cal-Berkeley on Thursday, May 29th to claim the 2014 NCBA Division I World Series title! The 2014 league championship is the second NCBA National Championship in program history for the Aggies.

Utah State went 5-1 overall in the seven-day event and defeated Cal by a score of 6-3 in the National Championship match-up. Congratulations to head coach Norm Doyle and the entire Utah State Club Baseball team on a fantastic season! Relive all of the action with recorded broadcasts from each World Series game on UStream. Check-out action photos from Wagner Photography online too!

The NCBA would like to extend its thanks to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, The University of Tampa and all eight teams that competed in the 2014 event. See you all in 2015!

Cronquist Named Division I World Series MVP

Congratulations to Aggies' center-fielder Kelton Cronquist! The senior was hot at the plate and a force to be reckoned with on the basepaths in six games at the 2014 DI World Series.

Cronquist hit .500 for the World Series, going 13-26 with 1 double, 2 triples, 5 RBIs, 8 runs scored, and 5 stolen bases.

Gators Named 2014 NCSA National Champions

Columbus, GA - With a 6-5 win over Florida State, the Florida Gators were crowned 2014 NCSA National Champions! The 2014 World Series title is the third in Gators' program history - Florida also won the league title in 2010 and 2012. With a 2014 title under their belt, the University of Florida is the only NCSA program that has won a World Series title three times.

The NCSA would like to extend its thanks to the Columbus Sports Council, Valley Hospitality and all 16 teams that competed in the 2014 event. Without all of your hard work, dedication and passion for club softball, the event would have never been possible. Thank you to all of the parents, friends, family and spectators who attended the event as well. See you all in 2015!

Adams Earns World Series MVP Honors

Congratulations to Florida State senior Robyn Adams! Robyn was the driving force throughout the tournament for Florida State, on the mound, in the field, and at the plate. This fifth year senior is a two-time NCSA World Series MVP recipient (2011 and 2014).

Will Pace Named DII World Series MVP

Congratulations to TAMU-Corps of Cadets' senior Will Pace, who was named the 2014 Division II World Series MVP! The righty tossed a complete game against William & Mary to earn the championship win. Through seven innings, Pace allowed just three runs on four hits and two walks while striking out nine.

Texas A&M Corps of Cadets Win 2014 DII NCBA World Series

Paducah, KY - The Aggies defeated The College of William & Mary by a score of 6-3 on Tuesday, May 20th at Brooks Stadium to earn the program's first-ever NCBA Division II National Championship title! In the team's second appearance at the World Series event, Texas A&M Corps of Cadets went 5-1 overall to earn the league title.

The NCBA would like to extend its gratitude to the city of Paducah, Fowler Black and the Paducah Convention and Visitor's Bureau, Doc Hideg and the entire facility staff at Brooks Stadium and all eight teams who participated in the 2014 event. Without all of your dedication and passion for the sport of club baseball, there would not be an event to put-on. See you all in 2015!

Muellner Wins 2014 DeMarini Longball Challenge

What a blast! A total of 16 participants competed in the 2014 DeMarini Longball Challenge on Saturday, May 24th at The University of Tampa Baseball Stadium. At the end of the evening, it was Chris Muellner who stood victorious. The fifth-year senior from the University of Texas smacked a total of eight homeruns to outlast the rest of the field and was crowned the 2014 Longball Challenge Champion.

Stephen Beninato of UCF Club Baseball finished in 2nd place and Greg Rostick of Delaware Club Baseball finished third. Thanks to all of this year's participants for putting on a great show!

Register for the 2014 NCFA Fall Kick-Off!

The date is set and the destination has been chosen! The 2014 NCFA Fall Kick-Off will host eight teams in a two-day competition on the weekend of September 20th at Rocky Top Sports World in Gatlinburg, TN. The facility is the newest sports complex in the Gatlinburg area.

Registration for the Fall Kick-Off is now open. If your team is interested in participating in the 2014 event, contact NCFA Director of Football Development Kyle MacDonald directly at (412) 321-8440 ext. 102 or via e-mail at Kyle.MacDonald@CollClubSports.com.
