NCFA 2015 POST SEASON AWARDS

AWARD			Name	School
 OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR	Ty Rus	Miami	Ty led the Miami charge in their march to the national championship game, leading Miami and the entire NCFA in rushing as well as leading Miami in receiving. He was the offensive catalyst for the Redhawks with everything running through him. He bruising hard nose running style made him a tough person tackle for NCFA opponents in 2015.
 DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR	Jimmy Neyhouse	Wright State	Jimmy had an aboslutely incredible statline from his defensive tackle postion of 16 sacks, good for 2nd in the NCFA and 62 tackles. He was the front line man on a very tough Wright State defense and was able to accomplish his great season even though he was frequently targeted with double teams. Numerous NCFA coaches commented that he was the toughest guy to block that they played all year.
 COACH OF THE YEAR	Daniel Mock	Middle Georgia State	Coach Mock came into Middle Georgia State in his first year planning to create a brotherhood among the players and eventually lead them to a championship. His instilation of discipline and brotherhood caught fire among the MGS players and they rode that flame all the way to the 2015 NCFA title.
 TEAM PRESIDENT OF THE YEAR	Evan Philburn	UM-Flint	Evan spearheaded a turnaround of a UM-Flint program that forfeited most of their 2014 season. He worked diligently in the offseason to secure a new coaching staff as well as recruit more players to the team in order to have a competitive 2015 season. Although the in game results were not at the level they hoped, Evan and the Flint leadership were able to lay the groundwork for future success in the NCFA
 CONFERENCE COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR	Scott Hoffman	Mid-Atlantic	Scott organized the return of the NCFA Kickoff Classic this year in Baltimore MD. He was able to get 6 teams to travel for that game which led to 3 great games for fans. He also worked hard with some teams that encountered many issues in the Mid-Atlantic Conference
