

850 Ridge Avenue
Suite 301
Fax Pittsburgh, PA 15212
Office: (412) 321-8440: (412)
321-4088

June 12th, 2015

Salem Set to Host 2015 NCFA Postseason Events

Pittsburgh, PA - The National Club Football Association is excited to announce that the 2015 NCFA National Championship Bowl Game and the 2015 NCFA Championship Playoffs will be hosted by the city of Salem, Virginia.

The NCFA National Championship Bowl Game will be held at Salem Stadium on Saturday, December 5th. The year 2015 marks the fourth consecutive season that the culminating championship event will be held in Salem. Last year, Oakland University defeated Robert Morris University by a score of 14-12 to take home the championship trophy.

Salem Stadium | Salem, VA

Salem Stadium is also the home of the NCAA Division III National Championship, better known as the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl, and the Summer Music Games of Southwest Virginia. The stadium seats 7,157 people and is truly a beautiful venue that any collegiate football fan can admire.

On Saturday, November 21st, the city of Salem will also host the first-ever NCFA Championship Playoffs at Spartan Field. The winners of the two playoff games will be featured in the championship match-up back at Salem Stadium on Saturday, December 5th.

“This will be an exciting year for the NCFA as we roll out our first-ever playoff system,” said NCFA President and Director of Football Operations, Sandy Sanderson. “Each of the four Conference Champions (North Atlantic, Mid-Atlantic, South Atlantic, and Great Lakes) will be seeded one through four based on the NCFA Power Rankings. The No. 1 seed will play the No. 4 seed, and No. 2 will play No. 3 with the winners returning two weeks later to compete for the National Title on the big stage of Salem Stadium.”

Spartan Field | Salem, VA

Fans can head online to the NCFA League Website (www.ncfafootball.org) to find out more information about the 2015 National Championship event.

For more information about the National Club Football Association, contact Director of Football Operations Sandy Sanderson at Sandy.Sanderson@CollClubSports.com or call 412-321-8440.