Eight Teams Head to NCBBA Ntn'l Championship

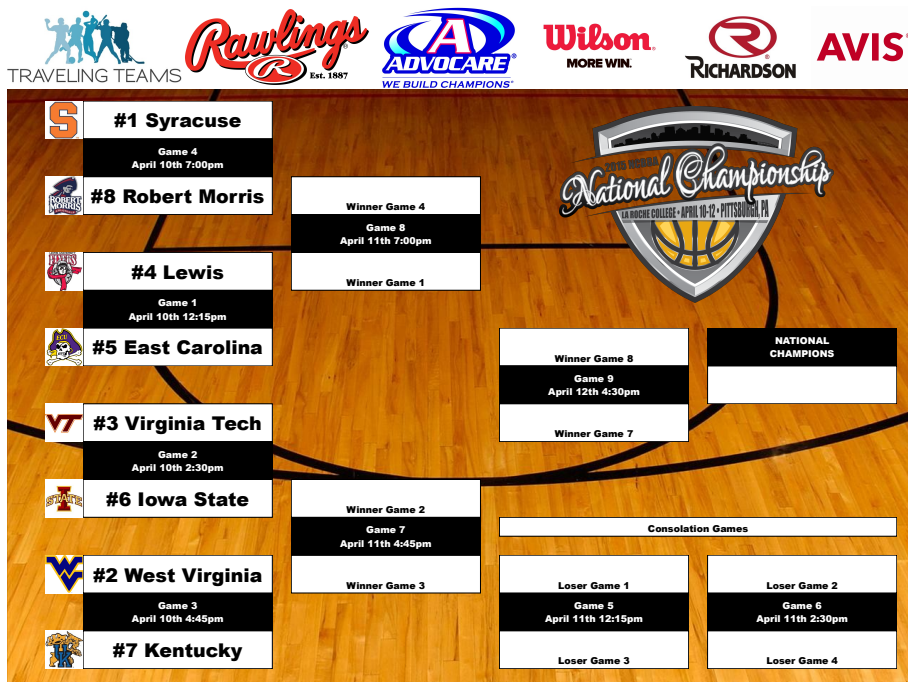

As the NCBBA Regular Season winds down, all eight participants have been chosen for the 2015 National Championship Tournament. The season-culminating event will be held at La Roche College in Pittsburgh, PA, from April 10-12.

This year's participants include East Carolina, Iowa State, Lewis University, Robert Morris, Syracuse, Kentucky, Virginia Tech and West Virginia. As reigning NCBBA National Champions, the Hokies from Virginia Tech will look to defend their league title while seven other teams will do their best to take it for themselves.

For more information about the 2015 National Championship Tournament, head to the NCBBA Championship Webpage located within the NCBBA League Website.

RECAP: 2015 Spring Training Showcase

More than 170 Games played in Plant City this season

The 2015 Spring Training Showcase has officially come to a close. More than 70 Club Baseball and Club Softball teams descended upon Plant City, FL, for the month of March and played a combined total of 175 games in just 30 days. The event was bigger and better than we ever could have imagined!

Thanks to Triangle Umpire Association, Plant City Parks and Recreation, Tampa Bay Sports Commission and all of our local sponsors for making it a great showcase. For a complete list of scores and updates, head to the NCBA Spring Training Website or the NCSA Spring Training Website. See you next year!
