Oakland Captures 2014 NCFA Championship Title!

The Grizzlies outlasted top-ranked Robert Morris by a score of 14-12 to win the 2014 NCFA National Championship Bowl Game on Saturday, December 6th at Salem Stadium in Salem, Virginia. The league title is the first in Oakland's program history.

Sophomore wide receiver Brandon Tucker earned MVP honors for his standout performance. He had two catches for 92 yards with a game-changing 60 yards for a TD.

Congratulations, Grizzlies!

NCFA Signs Three New Teams for 2015-16

The NCFA is extremely excited to welcome Central Connecticut State University, Sacred Heart University and Michigan State as new league-member teams for the 2015-16 NCFA Season!

A Year in Review

What was your favorite memory of 2014?

Christian Smith

Vice President of NCBA Baseball Operations

"My favorite memory would have to be crowning Texas A&M Corps of Cadets the 2014 NCBA DII National Champions in Paducah. Handing over the championship trophy signifies the end of the season and the culmination of a lot of hard work. To be able to give it to such a deserving and classy group of guys was a pleasure and an honor. I was extremely happy for them!"

Sandy Sanderson

President/CEO of CollClubSports

"I really enjoyed getting to watch Savannah run her first NCSA World Series. I got to see her run a tremendous tournament, but not once did she have to come to me to problem-solve or ask my input. She's grown so much since she started here and it was special for me to watch while I was hiding out at the front gate. I felt like I was on the show undercover boss, except she knew I was there."

Savannah Ahrens

NCSA/STS Vice President of Operations

"My favorite memory of 2014 would be the NCSA Free Agent Team taking second place at the 2014 NCSA Spring Training Tournament. With the help of some current NIU players, UF and FSU alumni, and NCSA staff, we pulled off an amazing run in the elimination round, facing Florida (2014 NCSA WS Champs) in the final game."

Eric Curitore

Director of DII NCBA Baseball Operations

"My favorite memory was pitching against and defeating BGSU, where I played and graduated from, down at the Spring Training Showcase last March while playing on the Free Agent Team. The final out was their tying run getting thrown out at the plate in the bottom of 7th. Two and a half hours of baseball has become a priceless memory of bragging rights for years to come."

Kelsey Detweiler

Sports Information Director/Sponsor Account Manager

"Running the 2014 NCBA Great Lakes Regional in Battle Creek was easily the most fun and competitive tournament I've ever witnessed. Extra innings, comeback wins and great weather - we had it all. The Great Lakes is the best!"

Craig Budzik

Rawlings Sponsor Account Manager

"My favorite moment of 2014 was the NCFCA National Championship. The city of Salem was a lot of fun, but the best part was the actual game itself. This was my first time at the NCFCA National Championship and I was very impressed with the talent level of both teams - it made for a great game. Mac and Bob's was pretty awesome too."
