NCBBA Begins Non-Conference Play

November 1st marked the first day of play in the NCBBA as two of our league member teams competed in non-conference games. Since then, another 19 non-conference games have been played around the league. As the league looks to add few more big-name teams to the mix, three of six conference schedules have already been released in anticipation for the Spring. The NCBBA currently includes these 21 member teams!

A Battle of the Best

In just a few days, the top two teams in the league as determined by the 2013 NCFA Power Rankings will compete for a national championship title. Will the undefeated Knights from Middle Georgia State continue to dominate the league, or will the defending national champion Eagles take the league title back to Coppin State?

#1 Middle Georgia State College

Conference Record: 4-0-0
Overall Record: 11-0-0
South Atlantic Conference Champions

"We appreciate you guys. We are honored to represent the NCFA in that National Championship spot. We're just honored and blessed but it's not set in stone until we can go out in there in Virginia and really win the whole thing."
- Head Coach, Randall Jump

#2 Coppin State University

Conference Record: 5-0-0
Overall Record: 8-2-0
Mid-Atlantic Conference Champions

"I've been waiting and hoping and praying. I think it's even more rewarding based on the way that the program has evolved. We've made great strides between year one and year two of the program and we haven't missed a beat."
- Head Coach, Albert C. Howard
