Worth the “Official Softball of the NCSA”

In the first weeks of July, Worth reached an agreement with the National Club Softball Association and CollClubSports that makes Worth the “Official Softball of the NCSA”. Beginning this 2013-2014 season, Worth softball will be the only game-balls approved for NCSA game play.

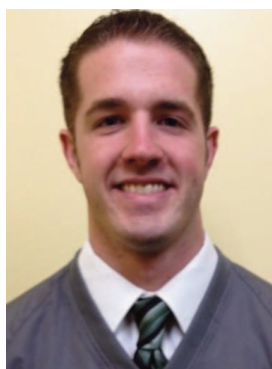

“I am excited to be expanding our relationship with Worth as they become the official softball provider of the NCSA,” said Savannah Harp, Director of Operations for the National Club Softball Association. “Just as Worth has provided the NCAA Softball Championship with their official game balls, I know our teams will be thrilled to begin a new era of NCSA softball featuring Worth as the official on-field game ball.”

Each NCSA-member team will receive 2-dozen Worth softballs included in their league membership at the start of the season. To purchase more Worth softballs contact Eric Curitore, Worth Sponsor Account Manager, at 412-321-8440 ext. 101 or by email at Eric.Curitore@CollClubSports.com.

Meet the New Staff at CollClubSports

Name: Keith Mora
Title: Director of Football Development
Hometown: Fostoria, OH
Alma Mater: Wright State, '13
Favorite Quote: “The water didn’t break through the rock because of its strength. It broke through because of its persistence.”

What do you hope to accomplish in your time with CollClubSports? I hope to grow the NCFA in all regions and to help struggling teams stabilize their programs and start being able to grow in the right direction.

Why are you best fit for the position that you were hired for? I believe that my passion for athletics and all of the great life lessons that can be learned through athletics drives me to make them the best that they can be. My attention to detail and my persistence gives me the ability to get the job done when it may seem too difficult.

Name: Kelsey Detweiler
Title: Sports Information Director
Hometown: Perkasio, PA
Alma Mater: Penn State, '13
Favorite Quote: “We also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope.”

How do you plan to help teams succeed this season? As a former member and officer of an NCSA team, I’m looking to build on my own experiences and keep teams better informed and better prepared week in and week out.

What made you want to join the CollClubSports staff? It’s a group of hard-working people who have a passion for sports - there isn’t any other group I can imagine myself fitting in better with at this point in time.

We've entered some exciting times in the National Club Basketball Association also known as the NCBBA! With only two months until the season's tip-off, teams are getting excited and interest has spread across the nation.

The league is on pace to kick-off with 40 teams for 2013, but we can beat that! The two most recent teams to enter the league are Miami of Ohio and Northwestern.

Spread the word to your friends and help them start a Club Basketball team at their school today!

NCFA Players to Watch
National Club Football Association

Offensive

#7 Deven Lopez
QB/RB | 6'0 - 215 lbs.
Loyola University

"In 2012 he was a force to be reckoned with in our back field. Weighing in at 230lbs he outweighed the majority of our offensive line.

This off-season he spent his time playing running back and outside linebacker for the Chitown Blaze, a semi-professional football organization. He was the team's leading rusher and an impact player on their defense.

This fall he will be returning as the quarterback, bringing a new twist to the Loyola offense."

-Loyola Club Football President
Bobby O'Mullan

Defensive

#78 Dee Harris
Defensive Tackle | 6'4 - 330 lbs.
Onondaga Community College

"Dee was dominant in 2012 and his return alone is worth a couple wins for Onondaga. No club program was able to consistently move the ball through the middle thanks in large part to Dee's ability to take on double-teams and still get to the ball carrier.

He is originally from Liverpool, NY where he attended Liverpool High School."

-Onondaga CC Director of Football Operations Derek Demperio

New Teams

Division I

Sonoma State University
Cal State Northridge
Florida Gulf Coast University

Division II

Cleveland State University
Slippery Rock University
Methodist University
Colgate University
Murray State University
University of Akron
Bucknell University
Bryant & Stratton College
New Mexico Tech
Missouri Science & Tech
Stevenson University
Louisiana State University
University of Louisville
SUNY Brockport

The NCBA is pleased to announce the acquisition and inclusion of 17 total new teams to the league for the 2013-2014 season.

This makes for continually growing Division I and Division II leagues. The NCBA encourages all current league members to continue networking with other schools and programs to continue the growth of the largest Club Baseball Association in the country.

Please also take the time to check out the results of the 2014 NCBA Rules Committee Meeting on the DI or DII website in the 'Headlines' section on the left-hand side.

The discussion topics the Rules Committee voted on are at the beginning with the results of those discussions towards the end.
